

Roger D. Wilson

roger@secureproductsgroup.com

Executive Profile

Mr. Wilson retired in 2004 from the Federal Bureau of Investigation after a 27-year career. He is a national security specialist with current Top Secret clearances. Since retiring, he is contracted by the FBI to provide advice and consultation to FBIHQ regarding national security matters, focusing on the prevention of illegal acquisition of U. S. technology by foreign countries. He is detailed to a multi-agency task force at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio. He has 31 years of operational and program management experience in counterintelligence, international and domestic counterterrorism, cyber crimes and security programs.

Professional Experience

Supervisory Special Agent, FBI Cincinnati Field Office, Cincinnati, OH

Supervised a squad of Special Agents and Intelligence Analysts, covering the 48 counties in the U.S. Southern District of Ohio.

- Managed investigative programs and personnel for the following FBI programs:
 - Domestic and International Terrorism
 - Foreign Counterintelligence
 - Cyber Crimes
 - Security Programs
 - Applicant Recruiting/Backgrounds
- Directed strategic planning, financial oversight, and performance monitoring of investigations and personnel in these programs.
- Provided daily supervision, administrative oversight, and professional development of up to 20 Special Agents, Intelligence Analysts and Task Force Officers.
- Supervised the Cincinnati FBI Security Program and had administrative oversight, planning and implementation for all personnel, facility and information security policies and procedures.
- Created two counterintelligence working groups consisting of multiple U.S. intelligence and law enforcement agencies.
- Initiated the creation of the Cincinnati FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force.
- Conducted annual threat surveys to identify and establish program and investigative priorities for National Security matters.
- Identified and initiated two counterintelligence investigations that were placed in the FBI's top 25 National Strategic Initiatives.
- Supervised Cincinnati FBI's Weapons of Mass Destruction Counterproliferation initiative.
- Received two Quality Service Increases (within grade promotions) in 1998 and 2003 for accomplishments achieved in management of counterintelligence and counter terrorism programs.

Special Agent, FBI Columbus Resident Agency, Columbus, OH

Directed operations and investigations directly against National Security Threats in Central Ohio.

- Successfully conducted investigation and conviction of subject of "Bubonic Plague" case in Columbus, Ohio, which received national notoriety, and prompted Congressional action on control of laboratory samples
- Developed and operated a high-level domestic terrorism source resulting in the prevention of the domestic terrorism by a nationwide white supremacy group.
- Developed partnerships with federal, state, and local intelligence and law enforcement agencies that was precursor of the Joint Terrorism Task Force.

Special Agent, FBI, Washington Field Office, Washington, D. C.

Directed intelligence exploitation operations during the height and through the end of the Cold War. Successfully countered intelligence operations of the Czechoslovakian, Hungarian, and Romanian Intelligences Services.

Significant Accomplishments

- Established a partnership network of local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies to respond to 9/11 terrorist attacks.
- Created a task force of numerous U. S. intelligence agencies and law enforcement agencies. This task force is touted nationally as the model for agencies to work together to address National Security threats to the U. S. Provided numerous briefings regarding same to the White House National Security Council.
- Directed the public safety agencies of the cities of Columbus and Cincinnati through Domestic Preparedness Training.
- Supervised a domestic terrorism investigation that prevented the assassination of the director of the Southern Poverty Law Center as highlighted in the new book Into the Devils Den.
- Created one of the first Infragard Chapters in the FBI.
 - Infragard is the FBI outreach to public, private and government entities to protect the critical infrastructures of the U. S. from cyber attack.
- Created one of the first FBI Cyber Crimes Task Forces consisting of local, state and federal law enforcement officers.
- Received awards current task force work.
 - May 2007 - Department of Defense - Counterintelligence/Law Enforcement Team Analysis Award
 - June 2007– Director of National Intelligence – National Intelligence Meritorious Unit Citation
 - June 2008 – Department of Defense – Counterintelligence/Law Enforcement Investigations Award

Professional Enhancement

- FBI Management Training
- International and Domestic Terrorism Training
- Counterintelligence Training
- Domestic Preparedness Training
- Security Programs Management Training
- Reid Interview and Interrogation I & II
- Crisis Management Training and Exercises